

A BOOK & MINISERIES CENTURIES IN THE MAKING

Based on the #1 watched TV Miniseries, The Bible, this new companion novel by Roma Downey and Mark Burnett explores the sacred text's most significant stories.

A sweeping narrative that dramatizes the most important events and characters in the Bible. The novel covers the full scope of biblical events, making the men and women of Scripture come alive in vivid detail and dialogue.

A 10-hour miniseries on the History Channel is the basis for the novel. Historically and theologically accurate, many prominent biblical characters are dramatized in the story: Moses, David, Daniel, John the Baptist, and, of course, Jesus.
